

WHY SELL WITH GPAD?

It's Not Just the Name it's The Results.

Having sold hundreds of properties in Logan, formally being a part of many award winning Logan real estate teams and offices, Goodsell property and development's experience and area knowledge will get you the best final sale price when selling your property.

Give Goodsell Property and Development a chance today, our friendly and helpful service will have you telling your friends and our professional results and communication will keep you coming back and building your portfolio with us.

Goodsell Property and Development (GPAD) is the only local office focusing on residential and commercial developments, teaming up with some of Australia's largest buyer's agents we have built a record breaking investor partnership in residential property in Logan while still boasting an outstanding offering of brand new house and land packages from some of Queensland's best builders.

Our Rates 3.3% including GST

Marketing is Negotiable